OK! I'm not complaining... Honest. I just wish these monsoons would switch to the weekdays, and leave the weekends so I could get a flight in or two!!

For the electric contest fliers: July 2nd at 10:00am, on the 16th - 10:00am, and again on the 30th, you got it - 10:00am. I'm aware that, judging by the emails I see flying about - the monsoons have reeked a bit of havoc on this contest schedule... I keep hearing that it's going to be a dry summer! Do they mean this summer, or next year?? But - hey! I'm not complaining...

Nothing heard from anyone this time... But as a reminder - the annual Buzzard Big-Bird Fly-In is set for this month on the weekend of the 8th and 9th. Do come out and "spectate" and have some fun as well.. Bring a big bird if you have one.. Or fly your smaller ones after the field opens at 5:00.. Bob & Sheila P. et al, will have their concession going, so food won't be an issue! Makes for a fun day or so..
